

Title of story:

Name:

Author of story:

Choose one of the following questions to answer regarding the short story.

1. What mood was created by the author? How? Be specific using evidence from the text.
2. How did the author create suspense? Be specific using evidence from the text.
3. How does this story connect to the idea of fate versus free will? Explain your answer using specific evidence from the text.

ACES Response:

___ Answers the question (topic sentence)

___ Cites 3 specific pieces of evidence from the text (at least one direct excerpt)

___ Explains (why you chose each piece of evidence & how it helps to answer the question)

___ Summarize (the point/reword your answer to the question)

Title of story:

Name:

Author of story:

Choose one of the following questions to answer regarding the short story.

1. What mood was created by the author? How? Be specific using evidence from the text.
2. How did the author create suspense? Be specific using evidence from the text.
3. How does this story connect to the idea of fate versus free will? Explain your answer using specific evidence from the text.

ACES Response:

___ Answers the question (topic sentence)

___ Cites 3 specific pieces of evidence from the text (at least one direct excerpt)

___ Explains (why you chose each piece of evidence & how it helps to answer the question)

___ Summarize (the point/reword your answer to the question)